

Meet bestselling author Joanna Henry

Brampton Library and the Canadian Federation of University Women are proud to be co-hosting an evening with Joanna Henry, author of the book “Powered by Love: A Grandmothers’ Movement to End AIDS in Africa.”

This is the untold story of AIDS in Africa.

By the time the AIDS pandemic in Africa had reached its height in the early 2000s, millions of children had been orphaned. In the face of overwhelming loss, the grandmothers of Africa stepped in to hold families and communities together. Author Joanna Henry and photographer Alexis MacDonald visited eight African countries, interviewing and photographing hundreds of grandmothers (including Sarah Obama, Barack Obama’s grandmother) who are reclaiming hope and resurrecting lives.

The extraordinary images and stories of resourceful women fighting for a better future make Powered by Love an inspiration for everyone.
